Thank-You From The Editors

We, the editors, would like to sincerely thank all of the people that took time and helped put together this fine yearbook. The hard work of all of us shows through. We would like to express a special thanks to Mrs. McFarland for the great pictures she took and developed for us. Our gratitude also goes out to our student photographers, Jim McCullough, Hans Glandorf, and Rhonda Roberts, as well as Mr. Pivoriunas. We were very proud of our 1982 yearbook staff. We feel the staff worked well together, and to top it off, a very dedicated advisor who knew how to organize a great yearbook, Mrs. Crandall.

Thank you,
Lisa Carroll and Paula Bauman

In Loving Memory Of . . .

Scott Clark

Kelly Green

The clock of life is wound but once,
and no man has the power
To tell just where the hands will stop at late or early hour.
Now is the only time you own;
Live, love, toil with a will.
Place no faith in tomorrow,
For the clock may then be still.

Author Unknown

We dedicate our yearbook to Michael McKibben, our classmate, who has shown courage, determination and patience while recovering from an accident in 1981.

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high.
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit —
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow —
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than it seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out.
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you can never tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit —
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

Del-Hi Is

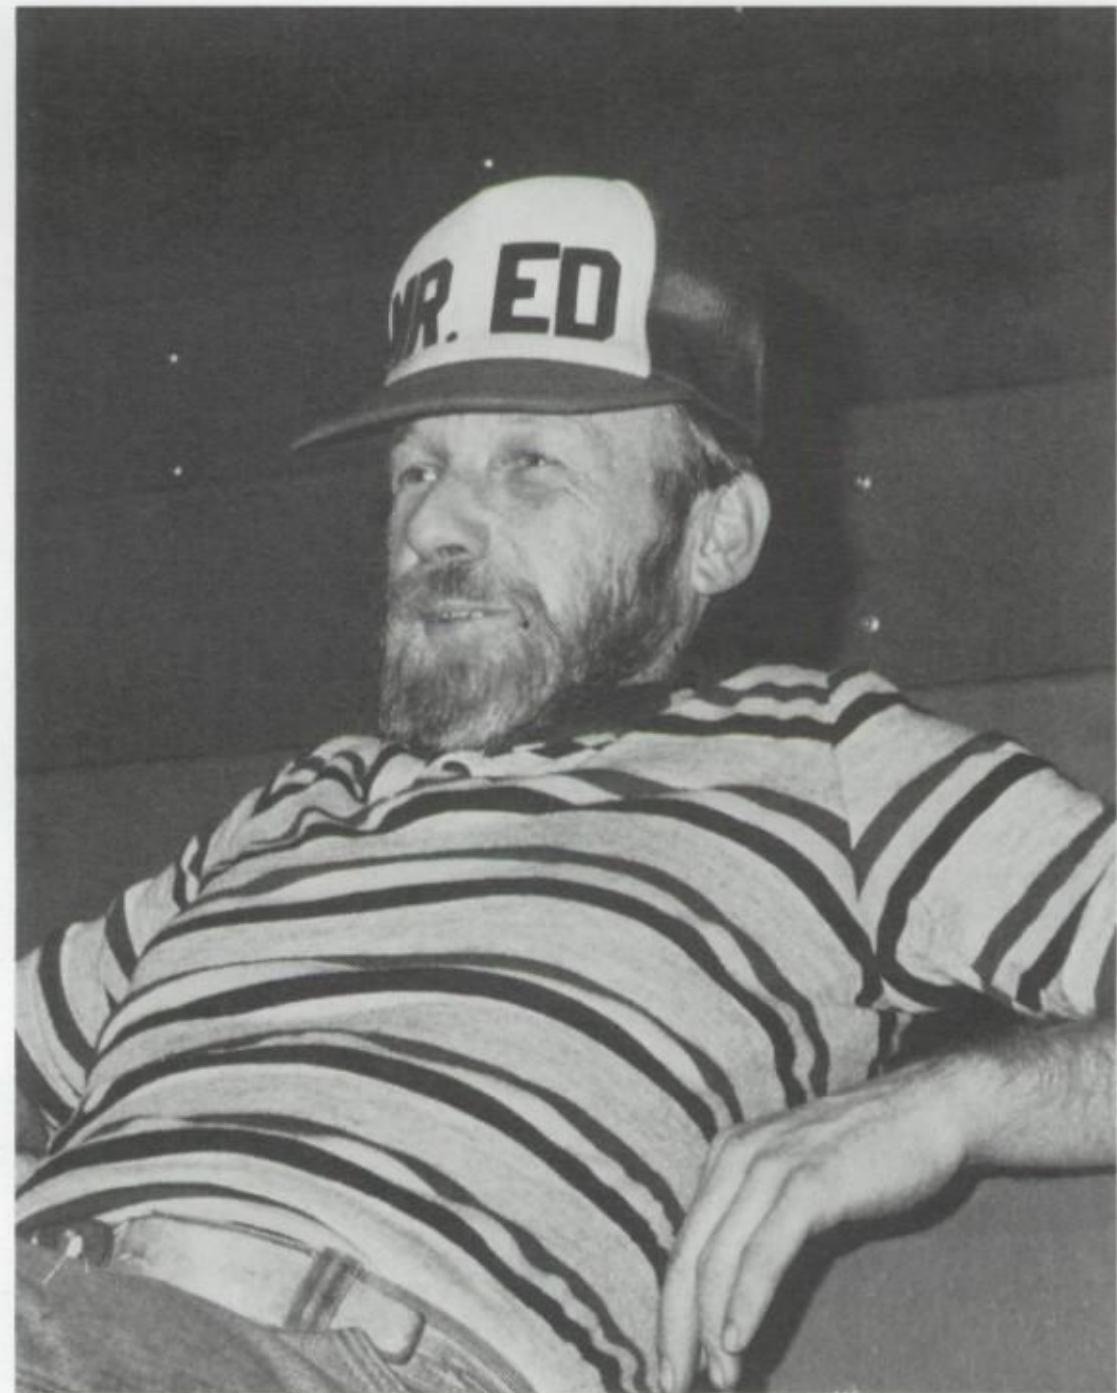

—Style—

Every year has its distinction . . . a certain characteristic that makes it different from those that are spent and those that are to come. For the most part it is the people that make this distinction . . . for it is their whim . . . their fickle decision . . . that makes last year's hangout, this year's "For Sale or Rent" . . . last year's designer jeans, this year's paint clothes. This distinction, this characteristic, this whim is simply our "STYLE" . . . and it is how we did it in 1981-1982 . . . and do you know that next year's "STYLE" is already underway?

Top: Panthers have style!

Right: Mr. Ed takes a break from his style of work, in which he is always around to give students and faculty a helping hand during evening activities.

Middle Right: Lori Gerken styles her hair as she walks down the hallway.

Bottom: Eric Kern and Donna Callahan show off stylish punk clothes.

Top: Kim Tuckerman and Karen Parker dance with class.
Middle: FFA members display their classy tractors.
Bottom: Hans Glandorff has his own style of photography.

Snowstorms across mid-west
More snow fell than during the blizzard of '78
Ice storms left icy road conditions
School cancelled seven days because of snow and ice
Had to make up two snow days over Easter vacation
Cold wind chill factor of 70 below zero with winds of 55 mph
When spring thaw came, floods hit surrounding communities of Grand Rapids and Defiance
Viaduct east of Delta filled with five feet of water and two cars
Last week of March the snow struck again

Going to McDonald's® is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.

You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat. And that's why, at McDonald's, we do it all for you.
